

30. June 2009

Kanera 1D awarded 2.Place - Steel Innovation Prize 2009

On June 30th the double sink Kanera 1D by Graft was awarded a 2. Place in the Steel-Design category. It is one of 14 winners, chosen among 644 contestants.

Since 1989 the Steel Innovation Prize (Stahl-Innovationspreis) is awarded every three years, to promote innovative ideas and products made of steel, and helps successfully position them in the market. The competition is one of the most distinguished of its kind in Germany.

SIP 09 Film

29. June 2009

Graft receives an Award of Merit 2009 - IES Illumination Awards

The Ginkgo Bacchus Restaurant in Chengdu, China designed by Graft, received an Award of Merit from the IES Illumination Awards (formerly the International Illumination Design Awards).

List of Official Recipients

Ginkgo Design Low Res-PDF \(4mb\)

25. June 2009

Ao-Di Next-Gen selected for 2010 National Geographic documentary

The Ao-Di Next-Gen Project has been selected by the National Geographic channel (NGC) for a one and a half year enduring documentary. 33 proposals, by international-experienced documentary teams, were submitted, 12 short-listed (all viewed by the senior vice-president of NGC in Washington DC). Next-Gen was selected to be sponsored by NGC. The film will be shown end of 2010 in 165 countries in 34 languages.

official announcement \(in Chinese\)

10. June 2009

Graft wins 4th place in Roofing/Pedestrian Guidance System Competition, in Wolfsburg

On June 10th, the jury announced the winners of the competition „roofing connecting the main trainstation and central bus station in combination with a pedestrian guidance system". Graft was awarded 4th place. A first place was not awarded. For further info+material please contact Max Winchester, max@graftlab.com

 competition panels

02. June 2009

Bombay Sapphire Design Nights, Stilwerk - Berlin

The vernissage of the Bombay Sapphire Design Nights in Berlin presents „Bombay Fusion“ by GRAFT, as core of the exhibition. This unique design object is the latest addition to the Bombay Sapphire Blue Collection.

Opening is 02. June 2009, at 19:00 Uhr in the stilwerk, Kantstraße 17.
The temporary exhibition can then be seen from 02.06.–07.06.2009.

www.bombaysapphire.com